

APA Citations & References: Pre-Quiz Practice

Part 1.

True & False Sentences

Directions: Read the sentences and write T for True and F for false in the column.

	T or F
1. Citing and referencing in academic writing is important because it helps writers avoid plagiarism.
2. A citation is written in the body of a paper with parenthesis. i.e. (Al Kaabi, 2016).
3. A reference gives detailed information about a source.
4. There is only one type of reference and citation style in academic writing.
5. Using citations and a reference list is important because it shows which ideas have been taken from other texts.

Part 2.

Use of Citations

Directions: Read the short descriptive paragraph. Choose the 2 sentences that need an in-text citation. Why are the citations necessary?

Around the world, there are many examples of beautiful Islamic architecture, but one of the most important is the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque (SZGM).¹ It is considered one of the ten major mosques of Islam, and is located in the capital city of Abu Dhabi in the United Arab Emirates.² According to engineering reports, its construction took 12 years at an estimated cost of 2.167 billion AED.³ The SZGM is an example of modern Islamic architecture as well as an educational center for learning about Islam. It is also an important tourist destination in the UAE.⁴ A study by the UAE tourism authority shows that the mosque was visited by a total number of 4,685,000 worshippers and tourists.⁵ At the mosque, there are educational tours and a library to offer greater insight into Islamic civilization and intercultural understanding.⁶
